A new era of luxury living is dawning in enchanting Ealing with the creation of The Birchwood, a bespoke development of six beautiful apartments.

This building of majestic proportions manifests a masterful blend of design, technology and sophistication – providing homes fit for a prince in this, the Queen of London suburbs.

It has been created by a collaboration of the best craftsmen, designers and artisans, using beautiful colour palettes, textures, materials and objets d'art sourced from around the globe.

The concierge-serviced apartments redefine perceptions of aesthetic achievement and push the boundaries in terms of exquisite finish, attention to detail, specification and classic styling.

Enjoying an elevated position in Park View Road, the borough's most prestigious thoroughfare, The Birchwood boasts a W5 London postcode making it the capital's finest and newest country retreat.
